FACTS ABOUT THE GREAT LAKE MONSTER

Through interviews with eye-witnesses we have come with the following interesting features about The Great Lake Monster.

LENGTH, WIDTH AND HEIGHT:

The smallest length is 3-4 meters, the largest 7-8 meters. The width varies between 100-150 centimeters and the height over the surface the water is 75-100 centimeters.

SHAPE OF THE BODY:

Fifteen witnesses are talking about an "upside-down-boat", while ten describe it as resambling a "log".

HUMPS:

Eight witnesses has seen three humps or more.

COLOUR:

The leading colour is black, followed by grey with shades of brown, yellow and red.

FINS, FEETS AND OTHER APPENDICES:

In five cases witnesses has seen feets on the animal and in three of these cases four feet. Fins are only seen in two cases, while five witnesses describes ears.

HEAD AND NECK:

Three witnesses describe the head as dog-like, then comes moose-lik horse-like, snake- and lizard-like heads. The neck is long and the hea is considered small in comparsion to the body in general. Two independent witnesses gives a similar description of large eyes and a red mouth (one with a tongue going back and forth, the other witness with a swan-looking neck, red and shiny).

SPEED:

24 witnesses said that The Great Lake Monster had a very high speed. The animal seems to be capable of a speed between 10-15 knots, up to 20 nots and maybe exceeding this.

TIME OF THE YEAR:

August is the leading month with 26 observations and the leading quarter of the year is the third, with 54,8 percent.

WEATHER:

Sunny weather to 76 percent.

LENGTH OF OBSERVATION:

The Great Lake Monster is a shy creature, only seen between 1-5 minutes and the longest observation ever made (from October 13, 189 was an exceptional four hours.

TIME OF THE DAY:

The most common time is in the evening.